The Auditorium Tom Mix, intrepid portrayer of western roles, had two narrow escapes Installment Cards and Books from serious injury while embodied in the newest William Fox photoplay, the newest William Fox photoplay, The Man Within, were being filmed. Mix, as the hero, had engaged the crooked sheriff in a fight in a court-room. Mix caught him with so hard a blow that Mr. Sheriff turned a forward samersault, his heel, with the spur, coming from behind, digging itself into the side of Mix's face about an eighth of an inch from his right eye. It happened so quickly, that Mix was unable to get out of the way. was unable to get out of the way. Showing his indomitable pluck, Mix continued the scene, with even a more hazardous stunt to perform. He had to dive through a plate glass window. When he arose, it was discovered that he had had his nose skinned with a jagged piece of glass. Director Rey-nolds thought that his star had had enough casualties and called it a day.

The second feature is Elaine Hammerstein, in a well acted six-part pho-Miss Hammerstein is ably supported by an all star cast. The picture is entitled Wanted For Murder and it held the big audience of men and women sitting straight up in their seats, laughing, gasping and making Charming Alice Brady in her lat-est Select picture. The World to Live in, plays the role of Rita Charles, a the plays the role of Rick states, a tinpanner—a girl who works for her living during the daytime and at night is a "pai" to anyone who will show her a good time. Rita falls in love—against her will—with Dr. Varian, a cettlement house worker. She there not think that he has congin to does not think that he has enough to offer her and refuses him when he asks her to marry him. It is only after she has received a long-sought proposal from her "pal" that she re-alizes that after all money isn't the only thing that counts, and she refuses him. With her refusal comes happiness. The World to Live In will

PLAINFIELD

On Wednesday afternoon, June 4th, a very pretty home wedding took place when Annie May Stubbs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stubbs, was united in marriage with Lawrence George Drescher, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Drescher, of Baltic. The house was decorated with lilles of the valley and mountain laws.

of the valley and mountain laurel. At 4 o'clock, to the wedding march from Lohengrin, played by Dorothy E. Tillinghast, the bridal party descended the stairs into the living room. Leading, were two little flower girls, Doris and Irene Generous, nieces of the bride. They carried small baskets of sweet pass and wore desease of white Following the flower girls came Edith E. Peterson, the bridesmaid, dressed in light blue crepe de chine and carrying pink sweet peas. Last came the bride on the left of her fa ther. Her gown was of cream white crepe de chine and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses and white sweet peas.

At the west side of the room they were met by the groom and the best man, Albert Cullen, of Baltic, a cousin of the bride. The ceremony was per-formed by Rev. Arthur W. Barwick, the double ring service being used. The bride's gift to the bridesmaid was a chain of green gold with lavaller containing a blue sapphire and pearls. Her gift to the pianist was a Roman gold friendship circle with initials engraved. Her gift to the groom was a set of white gold cuff links. The groom's gift to the bride was a necklace of tiny pearls strung on a plat-inum chain. His gift to the best man was a platinum stickpin set with a
